fine wines

at lamberts we are passionate about our wine, and would like to give our customers the opportunity to experience the very best at an affordable price! we just add corkage and vat to the cost price. hence we have compiled our “fine wine” list, which includes some classic names and a few that we sought out to broaden your horizons!

white

kumeu river 2014, hunting hill vineyard chardonnay, auckland 52

The 2014 Hunting Hill is beautifully fragrant with its lemon/lime blossom characters and lovely fruit purity. This wine shares some of the characters with the neighbouring Maté’s Vineyard with its attractive floral notes and restrained elegance. The Hunting Hill vineyard has a particularly pure character that, in its youth, displays a tight and crisp palate which needs some bottle age to reveal the power and concentration that lies beneath the surface.

chassagne-montrachet 1er cru 2014, clos saint-marc, olivier leflaive, burgundy 80

20% new oak, medium-toasted barrels have been used for fermentation and maturation, producing a wine of beautiful fragrance and great harmony. the palate is medium structured, with piercingly intense fruitiness, acidity in perfect balance and great length.

santenay clos genet 2013, domaine françoise et denis clair, burgundy 52

we are delighted to have a small parcel of this lovely 2013 clos genet. mid ruby in colour, the aromas are scented and fine, recalling red cherries and spice. this is a medium bodied, fleshy pinot noir with beautiful purity of fruit flavours, good structure and a fresh finish.

côte-rôtie 2009, “les massales”, domaine stéphane othéguy, rhône 82 strikingly floral northern rhône syrah: billowing sweet violets, wild rose and cherry blossom. the palate is equally perfumed revealing cherries and wild berries with firm yet integrated tannins bringing up the rear.

châteauneuf du pape 2013, domaine font de michelle 55 rich, elegant wine with soft blueberry notes and a touch of spice. delicious, full in the mouth; leather and tobacco notes, very smooth and approachable with a mellow, rich feel.

château batailley 2008, grand cru classé, pauillac, bordeaux 68

a dollop of fresh blackcurrants and ripe black cherries announce this consistently great value pauillac. with a lovely, balancing streak of acidity running throughout, ch. batailley is a harmonious and precise wine with smooth integrated tannins and a long savoury, mineral finish. a big chewy wine perfect with red meats!

château beausejour-duffau-lagarrosse 2002, saint-emilion grand cru, bordeaux 73 perched high on the limestone plateau of saint-emilion, château beauséjour-duffau-lagarrosse is one of the most classic and elegant wines in this commune. the 2002 is a sensational wine. it has beautifully perfumed, meaty, complex aromas. a fine, lithe, silken mouthful, this is creamy, full of life, vibrant and pure, with a spicy and long-flavoured finish.

rosso di montalcino 2013, querce bettina, tuscany 47.5
querce bettina is a tiny property in mocali, a small area just south of montalcino. Everything here is done by hand by sandra and roberto moretti – with the result that only a small number of cases per year are produced. Their 2013 rosso is a bright ruby colour, with a very attractive nose of blackcurrant leaf and eucalyptus, which is entirely typical of sangiovese grapes grown in mocali. with a concentrated, juicy palate and a silken texture, this is utterly delicious and immensely drinkable magnums

château de lionne 2012, graves, bordeaux 85
this 2012 is an elegant, poised red bordeaux. with bright ruby-purple colour, it has the sweet, scented, red berry aroma particular to graves reds. richly flavoured, lively and pure on the palate, the finish is smooth and uplifting.

alternatively, if you would like to bring your own bottle we charge £20 corkage.

single cask malt whisky whisky is one of the finest and most unique products from the british isles so we felt it was only right to celebrate this with a selection of some of the finest single cask and malt whiskies scotland has to offer. not wishing to teach our grandmother how to suck eggs, but..... we recommend adding a touch of water until you have balanced the whisky's alcohol for your own palate. You will find that each touch of water will release different aromas and flavours as the alcohol is balanced. We hope you enjoy our selection tullibardine 225 - sauternes cask finish - 43% highland 8.5

50ml glass

this fantastic single malt has been finished for 12 months in chateau suduiraut 1^{er} cru sauternes casks, which are 225 litres in size, hence the name. this creates a wonderful golden whisky with interesting citrus flavours, cereal notes and vanilla. there is a touch of pineapple and orange peel on the finish, which is medium to long.

arran - port cask finish - 50% island 9 port casks are used for a secondary maturation of this island malt. dried fruits, hazelnuts and the sweetness of mandarin oranges display the perfect marriage of the port cask & malt.

caol ila 2003 - 46% islay 8.5

from 1st fill bourbon barrels, this islay is typically peated, leading to powerful aromas of smoke and sea, and a sweet palate full of pear and orange flavours, with a lingering spice element.

loch lomond - inchmurrin 18 year - 46% highland 15 eighteen years have been kind to this very special single malt, which is a deeper colour than most bourbon due to the influence of the oak. it is, however, surprisingly elegant, with delicate notes of summer grass and citrus fruits as well as the usual suspects.

benromach 2006 - peat smoke - 46% speyside 8.5

wonderful expression of peat from this innovative distillery. very smoky (as expected) with cured meats and tobacco dominating the nose, and a distinct fiery flavour that dominates the palate.
