white

chassagne-montrachet 1er cru 2014, clos saint-marc, olivier leflaive, burgundy 80 20% new oak, medium-toasted barrels have been used for fermentation and maturation, producing a wine of beautiful fragrance and great harmony. the palate is medium structured, with piercingly intense fruitiness, acidity in perfect balance and great length.

santenay clos genet 2014, domaine françoise et denis clair, burgundy 52 we are delighted to have a small parcel of this lovely 2014 clos genet. mid ruby in colour, the aromas are scented and fine, recalling red cherries and spice. this is a medium bodied, fleshy pinot noir with beautiful purity of fruit flavours, good structure and a fresh finish.

côte-rôtie 2009, “les massales”, domaine stéphane othéguy, rhône 82 strikingly floral northern rhône syrah: billowing sweet violets, wild rose and cherry blossom. the palate is equally perfumed revealing cherries and wild berries with firm yet integrated tannins bringing up the rear.

châteauneuf du pape 2015, domaine font de michelle 55 rich, elegant wine with soft blueberry notes and a touch of spice. delicious, full in the mouth; leather and tobacco notes, very smooth and approachable with a mellow, rich feel.

vinding montecarrubo 2015, “il carrubo”, sicily 55
the master winemaker peter vinding-diers is the man behind this elegant mono-varietal bottle of syrah. rich, full-bodied, and showing a nose of crushed raspberries. well-structured, lean, balanced and silky with ripe, caressing tannins.

château batailley 2011, grand cru classé, pauillac, bordeaux 68 a dollop of fresh blackcurrants and ripe black cherries announce this consistently great value pauillac. with a lovely, balancing streak of acidity running throughout, ch. batailley is a harmonious and precise wine with smooth integrated tannins and a long savoury, mineral finish. a big chewy wine perfect with red meats!

château beausejour-duffau-lagarrosse 2002, saint-emilion grand cru, bordeaux 73 perched high on the limestone plateau of saint-emilion, château beauséjour-duffau-lagarosse is one of the most classic and elegant wines in this commune. the 2002 is a sensational wine. it has beautifully perfumed, meaty, complex aromas. a fine, lithe, silken mouthful, this is creamy, full of life, vibrant and pure, with a spicy and long-flavoured finish.

alternatively, if you would like to bring your own bottle we charge £20 corkage.

single cask malt whisky whisky is one of the finest and most unique products from the british isles so we felt it was only right to celebrate this with a selection of some of the finest single cask and malt whiskies scotland has to offer. not wishing to teach our grandmother how to suck eggs, but.... we recommend adding a touch of water until you have balanced the whisky's alcohol for your own palate. You will find that each touch of water will release different aromas and flavours as the alcohol is balanced. We hope you enjoy our selection

50ml glass

dufftown 2008 - 46% speyside 9

the spirit has notes of sweet vanilla and toasted malt with fruit elements developing; kiwi, lime, pear. the palate is sweet with subtle spiciness. strawberry and orange flavours develop with a creamy milk chocolate edge. a splash of water brings out honeycomb on the nose with hints of raspberry, lemon and sour plums.

tullibardine 225 - sauternes cask finish - 43% highland 8.5

this fantastic single malt has been finished for 12 months in chateau suduiraut 1^{er} cru sauternes casks, which are 225 litres in size, hence the name. this creates a wonderful golden whisky with interesting citrus flavours, cereal notes and vanilla. there is a touch of pineapple and orange peel on the finish, which is medium to long.

arran - port cask finish - 50% island 9 port casks are used for a secondary maturation of this island malt. dried fruits, hazelnuts and the sweetness of mandarin oranges display the perfect marriage of the port cask & malt.

caol ila 2004 - 46% islay 8.5

from 1st fill bourbon barrels, this islay is typically peated, leading to powerful aromas of smoke and sea, and a sweet palate full of pear and orange flavours, with a lingering spice element.

loch lomond - inchmurrin 18 year - 46% highland 15 eighteen years have been kind to this very special single malt, which is a deeper colour than most bourbon due to the influence of the oak. it is, however, surprisingly elegant, with delicate notes of summer grass and citrus fruits as well as the usual suspects.

benromach 2007 - peat smoke - 46% speyside 8.5

wonderful expression of peat from this innovative distillery. very smoky (as expected) with cured meats and tobacco dominating the nose, and a distinct fiery flavour that dominates the palate.
