fine wines

at lamberts we are passionate about our wine, and would like to give our customers the opportunity to experience the very best at an affordable price! we just add corkage and vat to the cost price. hence we have compiled our “fine wine” list, which includes some classic names and a few that we sought out to broaden your horizons!

white

chassagne-montrachet 1er cru 2015, clos saint-marc, olivier leflaive, burgundy 80 20% new oak, medium-toasted barrels have been used for fermentation and maturation, producing a wine of beautiful fragrance and great harmony. the palate is medium structured, with piercingly intense fruitiness, acidity in perfect balance and great length.

kumeu river 2012, maté’s vineyard chardonnay, auckland 64 maté’s vineyard is the king of the Kumeu crop – the most concentrated, structured and splendid of all the kumeu river chardonnays. the colour is bright lemon-green, nose being tightly woven, with hints of white peach and smoky minerality. The palate is more explosive, being wonderfully richly layered and mouthcoatingly textured. the finish is mineral, spicy, refreshing and long-flavoured.

two paddocks pinot noir 2016, the last chance, earnsleugh vineyard, central otago 64
the last chance pinot is from a dramatic, rocky terrace perched in bright clear air above the earnsleugh valley, carefully planted with well-tended burgundian clone pinot noir. actor sam neill owns and runs his two paddocks estate using strict organic farming methods. the last chance pinot noir 2016 is a bright and vibrant wine, being intense, energetic and beautifully perfumed.

santenay clos genet 2014, domaine françoise et denis clair, burgundy 52 we are delighted to have a small parcel of this lovely 2014 clos genet. mid ruby in colour, the aromas are scented and fine, recalling red cherries and spice. this is a medium bodied, fleshy pinot noir with beautiful purity of fruit flavours, good structure and a fresh finish.

châteauneuf du pape 2015, font de joubert 50 at font de joubert, many of the grenache vines are centenarians, these gnarled old vines giving intensely concentrated juice, contributing complexity and depth of flavour. aromas are smoky and spiced, with notes of red fruits and fresh herbs. palate starts full and grows in the mouth, it is structured, multi-layered, silkily textured and both a lively & elegant wine with soft blueberry notes and a touch of spice. delicious, full in the mouth, leather and tobacco notes, very smooth and approachable with a mellow, rich feel.

château batailley 2011, grand cru classé, pauillac, bordeaux - vegan 68 a dollop of fresh blackcurrants and ripe black cherries announce this consistently great value pauillac. with a lovely, balancing streak of acidity running throughout, ch. batailley is a harmonious and precise wine with smooth integrated tannins and a long savoury, mineral finish. a big chewy wine perfect with red meats!

château les tourelles de longueville, pauillac 2011 the second wine of second growth ch pichon longueville baron, there is ample class to be found here. the 2011 is a beauty – with a lovely, perfumed nose displaying open, fresh, complex aromas. the palate is finely textured, with sweet, charming fruit and silky tannins. the finish is long and aromatic.

brunello di montalcino 2013, il colle

79

from 100% sangiovese, the wine is aged for 4 years in large, old, slavonian oak casks. this 2013 vintage has a rich, complex aroma, including red fruits, spice and plum, with an exhilarating floral edge. this is a well built wine, with plenty of power and depth. there is plenty of freshness and energy here too, and a luscious, glossy texture. tannins are ripe and very fine, the length superb .

alternatively, if you would like to bring your own bottle we charge £20 corkage.

single cask malt whisky whisky is one of the finest and most unique products from the british isles so we felt it was only right to celebrate this with a selection of some of the finest single cask and malt whiskies scotland has to offer. not wishing to teach our grandmother how to suck eggs, but..... we recommend adding a touch of water until you have balanced the whisky's alcohol for your own palate. You will find that each touch of water will release different aromas and flavours as the alcohol is balanced. We hope you enjoy our selection

50ml glass

dufftown 2008 - 46% speyside 9

the spirit has notes of sweet vanilla and toasted malt with fruit elements developing; kiwi, lime, pear. the palate is sweet with subtle spiciness. strawberry and orange flavours develop with a creamy milk chocolate edge. a splash of water brings out honeycomb on the nose with hints of raspberry, lemon and sour plums.

tullibardine 225 - sauternes cask finish - 43% highland 8.5

this fantastic single malt has been finished for 12 months in chateau suduiraut 1^{er} cru sauternes casks, which are 225 litres in size, hence the name. this creates a wonderful golden whisky with interesting citrus flavours, cereal notes and vanilla. there is a touch of pineapple and orange peel on the finish, which is medium to long.

arran - port cask finish - 50% island 9 port casks are used for a secondary maturation of this island malt. dried fruits, hazelnuts and the sweetness of mandarin oranges display the perfect marriage of the port cask & malt.

caol ila 2004 - 46% islay 8.5

from 1st fill bourbon barrels, this islay is typically peated, leading to powerful aromas of smoke and sea, and a sweet palate full of pear and orange flavours, with a lingering spice element.

loch lomond - inchmurrin 18 year - 46% highland 15 eighteen years have been kind to this very special single malt, which is a deeper colour than most bourbon due to the influence of the oak. it is, however, surprisingly elegant, with delicate notes of summer grass and citrus fruits as well as the usual suspects.

benromach 2007 - peat smoke - 46% speyside 8.5

wonderful expression of peat from this innovative distillery. very smoky (as expected) with cured meats and tobacco dominating the nose, and a distinct fiery flavour that dominates the palate.
